Chesapeake Steeplechase Goes to Waterway-Result of Amateur Cup, for Gentlemen Riders, a Source of Disappointment-H, Lee's Colt Reyburn Surprises Followers.

Baltimore, May 8.-A half-holiday and an ideal day brought a record-breaking crowd out to old Pimlico this afternoon to witness the running of the thirteenth day's sport of the spring meeting at Compton the Hilltop track. Indeed, it was the Busy thirteenth day, and the time-worn hoodoo seemed right at the heels of the followers of those that are wont to follow the Samuel H. Harris favorites. But two real betting choices finished in front, and thereby the story

There were again three features on tha Havn card to-day-the Merchants' Handicap, the Chesapeaka Steeplechase, and the Amateur Cup for Gentlemen Riders.

Wright having the leg up, and confi-In the opening event, at four and one-helf furlongs, keybourne, H. Lee's star colt, with little Harty in the saddle brought joy to his owner and a few backers, by winning in the fast time of 0:56 flat. The berting about Reybourne was 15 to I and better. Momentum had little difficulty in taking the second from an ordinary field. Queen of the Hills, liked by many good judges, was piloted to victory by Eddie Dugan in the sixth. The Beverwick Stables sent along the vinner for the closing event in Court Lady. In this race Rosimiro was the hot tip of the day, and the money poured into the ring like everybody had saved up for this "one best bet." The best he ould do was to finish in the ruck.
